

ELF ON THE SHELF

Christmas time is nearly here, so I have come to stay with you & spread my festive cheer.

I'm here to listen & when you're fast asleep I'll fly to the North Pole & tell Santa what he has been missing.

Before you wake I'll run & hide, it'll be your job to find me so keep your eyes wide.

My magic happens when you have been good, so be on your best behaviour as you should.

Please don't touch me or my magic may flee,
for now I need a name.

What will you call me?
